

Heavy Counterweight

SKU: CWM

Heavy counterweight for use with MC series float switches. This metal counterweight is used to set or adjust the pivot point for the MC series of cable suspended float switches. The position on the cable relative to the switch can be used to adjust the liquid level differential between open and closed switch output. The MC series of cable suspended float switches from Cynergy3 are supplied with these counterweights.